

1 Objective of the Archipel Music Competition

The aim of the Archipel Music Competition is to connect young people and the elderly and to bring (popular) classical music to the residential care centers of Archipel. With this we offer young people a platform to demonstrate their talents to clients and residents of Archipel.

2 Participation

2.1 Participation in the Archipel Music Competition is open to amateur musicians (indication C level or equivalent). Amateurs are understood to be students from music schools, private teachers or similar.

2.2 Pupils of bachelor courses at a conservatory are excluded from participation.

2.3 Winners of the 1st prize at previous editions of the Archipel Music Competition are excluded from participation.

2.4 The age of the participant is a minimum of 8 years and a maximum of 18 years on the day of the final.

2.5 Each participant may participate in the competition with a maximum of one performance as a soloist and one performance in an ensemble.

2.6 Participants may register as a soloist, soloist with accompanist or ensemble, namely: duo, trio, quartet or quintet.

2.7 All participants in an ensemble referred to in point 2.6 must meet the conditions for participation stated in points 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 2.4 and 2.5.

2.8 A soloist with an accompanist is free to choose who he / she brings along as an accompanist. A supervisor does not compete for the prizes and therefore does not have to meet the conditions for participation in the competition.

2.9 If a soloist's piano accompanist meets all points under 2.7, the soloist and the accompanist also have the option of registering as a duo. The soloist and accompanist will then compete for the prizes together. This must be indicated on the registration form. Please note: The piano accompanist can no longer register with another (for example solo) performance. However, the piano accompanist, if registered as accompanist at the first performance, can register again as accompanist of another soloist.

2.10 The preliminary rounds and semi-finals take place on Saturdays and Sundays at various locations of Archipel. The final will take place on June 5, 2022 in Muziekgebouw Eindhoven.

2.11 Participants must be available for the preliminary round, semi-final and final. Finalists must be present during the final up to and including the award ceremony.

2.12 Participants must be present at the competition location at least half an hour before their performance.

2.13 Participants have the option to practice before their performance in a designated space. The schedule will be sent to them no later than ten days before the performance.

3 Repertoire and duration of the performance

3.1 The repertoire is exclusively (popular) classical music. In case of doubt, the chairman of the professional jury decides.

3.2 The participants put together their own repertoire.

3.3 The submitted repertoire is fixed throughout the competition. Deviations from this during the preliminary round, semi-final and final are not allowed.

3.4 It is possible to change the submitted repertoire up to three weeks before the start of the competition.

3.5 The performance must last a minimum of 5 minutes and a maximum of 10 minutes.

3.6 It is allowed to play your own compositions, provided they are composed in the style of (popular) classical music. In case of doubt, the chairman of the professional jury decides. Participants will not be judged on their composition, but only on the performance of the piece.

4 Accompaniment, instruments and sheet music

4.1 If piano accompaniment is required during the performance, the participant must provide a piano accompanist himself (only "live" accompaniment is allowed).

4.2 A maximum of 2 performances by students of the same teacher with the same piano accompanist may take place in a preliminary round and semifinal.

4.3 There is one piano or grand piano at each competition location. The participants themselves must provide all other necessary instruments and aids (e.g. lectern, etc.) or assistance during the performance (e.g. for turning music).

4.4 Participants are required to use original printed sheet music at all times.
